

THE FRIENDS INTERNATIONAL CENTER IN RAMALLAH

&

SABEEL ECUMENICAL LIBERATION THEOLOGY CENTER

Invite you to the book launch of

WHEN? Friday, August 29 @ 5:00 pm

WHERE? Ramallah Friends Meetinghouse

(On Main Street next to the Natsche Building and across the street from Rukab)

Jean Zaru will give the introduction

Respondents will include

Rev. Dr. Naim Ateek - founder and director of Sabeel in Jerusalem

Cedar Duaybis – founding and continuing board member of Sabeel

Ron Kraybill – Quaker Representative based in Jerusalem

Charmaine Seitz – journalist

Jean Zaru is currently the Presiding Clerk of the Ramallah Friends Meeting. She was born in Ramallah into a Quaker Family and has lived in Ramallah all her life. Jean joined her husband in serving the Friends School by teaching ethics and religion there. She has served on many boards nationally and internationally and was invited as a keynote speaker for many conferences in different parts of the world. Jean is a founding member of Sabeel and continues as one of its vice-presidents. Jean has received numerous international awards for her work on peace and justice issues and was recently nominated for the Niwano Peace Prize.

For more information:

02-297-1314 | 02-532-7136