

Last of the Roundtable Series

by Dr. Ron Kraybill

Negotiation, Mediation, and Facilitation Skills

WHERE? Ramallah Friends Meetinghouse
(on Main Street next to the Natche Building Ramallah, Palestine)

Wednesday, May 28 at 6:00 pm

The Roundtable Series has included the Following Topics:

February 27: The Political Transition in South Africa: A Primer in Negotiation as a Tool for Undoing the Structure of Domination

March 12: Division from Within – Killer of Movements for Justice and Peace

March 26: Peace does not Trickle Down from the Top – Strategies to Grassroots Negotiation for Change Broadly in the Social Context

April 2: Principles of Good Process Design – Setting up Negotiation and Decision Making Processes in Community and Political Settings

April 16: Tools for Conflict Analysis that Get to the Root of Things

May 28: Negotiation, Mediation, and Facilitation Skills

*****

Dr. Kraybill has worked with initiatives for peaceful change in South Africa, Northern Ireland, the Philippines, India, Sri Lanka, Burma, and elsewhere. He lived in South Africa 1989-1995 and was jointly appointed by the political parties there as training advisor to the South African National Peace Accord, a key structure in the political transition. He has done training, consulting and lecturing in peacebuilding throughout the world for nongovernmental organizations, universities, and the UNDP.

Presently he is based in Jerusalem as Quaker representative in the Middle East.